BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

Viola Vaughan-Eden, PhD, MSW, MJ, is a Professor at the Ethelyn R. Strong School of Social Work at Norfolk State University, where she served as PhD Program Director for the 2014–2026 academic years. She is President and CEO of UP For Champions, a nonprofit partnered with The UP Institute, a think tank focused on upstream solutions to child abuse prevention. She is also Founder and Principal of The Vaughan-Eden Collaborative, which provides evidence-informed training, research translation, policy consultation, and systems-level strategies to strengthen child and family well-being. A forensic and licensed clinical social worker, Dr. Vaughan-Eden has evaluated or consulted on more than 3,000 child maltreatment cases and qualified as an expert witness more than 700 times. She provides national and international consultation and training on child maltreatment, violence prevention, forensic social work, trauma-informed practice, and multidisciplinary collaboration. Her leadership includes serving as President Emerita and Fellow of the Association of Professionals Solving the Abuse of Children, President Emerita of the National Plan to End Interpersonal Violence Across the Lifespan, and President Emerita of the Forensic Social Work Alliance. She is also the Child Welfare Advisor to the National Family Violence Law Center and a board member of the Beau Biden Foundation for the Protection of Children. Dr. Vaughan-Eden has authored numerous publications including as co-editor-in-chief of the six-volume Handbook of Interpersonal Violence and Abuse Across the Lifespan and co-editor of the APSAC Practice Guidelines on Forensic Interviewing of Children. She has delivered more than 400 hundred presentations to multidisciplinary audiences nationally and internationally, and her honors include multiple lifetime achievement and distinguished alumni awards. CURRICULA DEVELOPMENT

2025-2026: Louisiana Department of Child and Family Services (LADCFS)
Strengthening the Trauma-Informed Response to Child Sexual Abuse is a two-day, trauma-informed Child Sexual Abuse training for Louisiana DCFS staff, aligned with Charlie's Law. The program provides updated, evidence-based practices for identifying, assessing, and responding to CSA, supported by case-based learning, regional guidance, and a comprehensive workbook to strengthen staff skills and confidence.

2023-2024: Louisiana Department of Child and Family Services (LADCFS)
Innovative Solutions for Heroes Protecting Children and Families Impacted by Child Sexual Abuse is a comprehensive two-day training curriculum developed, delivered, and evaluated by The UP Institute with Stacie LeBlanc, JD, MEd for DCFS Child Welfare staff statewide to include policies, protocols, and practices specific to the nine regional service delivery areas.

2022-2024: Litigation and Evaluation Involving Abuse Allegations in Family Court Cases (LEFCC)
Institute on Violence, Abuse and Trauma (IVAT) Specialty Certification for Family Court Professionals. LEFCC is a grant subsidized innovative specialized 20-hour in-person training for legal professionals (family court lawyers, judges, GALs) and mental health professionals (expert witnesses, child custody evaluators, therapists) sponsored by the Professional Consortium on Abuse Allegations in Family Court.

2022-2023: Victim and Family Advocacy
Victim advocates provide specialized services and resources to ensure consistent, coordinated, and comprehensive support for children and their non-offending caregivers in crisis. This 24-hour training curriculum was developed, delivered, and evaluated by The UP Institute with Stacie LeBlanc, JD, MEd and has been approved by the National Children's Alliance under the 2023 Standards for Accreditation as meeting the requirements for foundational training for Victim Advocates. An additional 15-hour in-person training on advanced victim advocacy was also developed.

2021-2025: Norfolk State University PhD Social Work Program for Asynchronous Online Instruction
Led the development of the online curriculum for the PhD Program in Social Work as well as designing several online doctoral courses. Courses were designed for delivery via Blackboard Learning Management System using Blackboard Learn Ultra in collaboration with the Office of Extended Learning's Instructional Creative Design (ICD) team.

2018-2021: Norfolk State University Trauma-Informed Practice with Children and Families
Developed BSW and MSW courses focused on trauma-informed, family-centered social work practice with children and families involved in child welfare or impacted by child maltreatment. The courses integrate systems theory with evidence-based, culturally responsive practice, emphasizing ethical assessment, risk and protective factors, and strategies that strengthen families, promote child well-being, and advance social justice.

CLINICAL & CONSULTING EXPERIENCE

2022-Present PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER (CEO)
UP for Champions
A nonprofit organization supporting Heroes Fighting Child Abuse by strengthening child- and family-serving professionals through advocacy, public education, and support initiatives. In partnership with The UP Institute, it advances evidence-informed strategies to prevent child abuse and neglect. Signature initiatives include Trees for Champions, honoring children lost to abuse and recognizing leaders advancing child protection and prevention.

2019-Present CO-FOUNDER & CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER (COO)
The UP Institute
A think tank advancing Upstream Child Abuse Solutions through education, research translation, and systems-level strategies for child welfare professionals. The Institute focuses on preventing adverse childhood experiences, promoting resilience, and strengthening protective and supportive relationships for children and families. It also supports program development and community-based initiatives that enhance child and family well-being.

2018-Present CLINICAL CONSULTANT
Williamsburg Counseling
Provide consultation services to clinicians who offer a variety of mental health treatment interventions across the lifespan.

2004-Present FOUNDER & PRINCIPAL
Vaughan-Eden Collaborative
(evolved from Vaughan-Eden Counseling Services, Child and Family Resources, Collaborative Divorce Solutions)
Provides national training, consultation, and system-level guidance to child welfare agencies, courts, and multidisciplinary teams on child maltreatment, trauma-informed practice, forensic social work, and standards of care. Delivered mental health and forensic services to children, adolescents, and families affected by abuse, neglect, trauma-related disorders, and foster care or adoption-related concerns. Served as a child specialist and coach for divorcing families utilizing an interdisciplinary collaborative practice model. The Vaughan-Eden Collaborative functions as a national platform for translating research into practice through training, consultation, forensic expertise, and applied scholarship that advances prevention-focused, trauma-informed systems change.

2003-2005 CLINICAL SUPERVISOR / DIRECTOR
Families Unlimited, Hampton, VA
Provided clinical supervision to the Executive and Program Directors of an in-home services agency. Implemented and supported the direct supervision of all clinicians and counselors, and the services provided to families with children ages birth to 22, who were at risk of being removed from their home and/or being placed in specialized educational or residential placements. Services were also provided for children with severe emotional and behavioral difficulties transitioning from restrictive environments to in-home placements. Assisted the Executive Director with in-service training for the clinical staff, and in the formulations and implementation of the program's policies and procedures.

1997-2004 CLINICAL SOCIAL WORKER
Whitaker and Associates, Hampton, VA
Provided outpatient counseling to children, adolescents, and their families. Provided clinical assessments of children and parents for Social Services, specializing in issues of child abuse and neglect. Collaborated with community agencies to coordinate treatment planning and all-inclusive intervention services. Regularly served as an expert witness in the Hampton Roads' Courts. Administered supervision to master's-level social workers pursuing licensure.

1995-2002 CLINICAL / FORENSIC SOCIAL WORKER
Child Abuse Program-Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters, Norfolk, VA
Fr. Children's Advocacy Center of CHKD/Child Abuse Center of Hampton Roads
Provided forensic evaluations and counseling to children, adolescents, and families of suspected abuse and neglect. Specialized with preschool and young children who were victims of sexual abuse. Collaborated with Child Protective Services, Law Enforcement, and The Courts to provide comprehensive services including parenting capacity assessments. Served as an expert witness in the Hampton Roads Courts. Participated in clinical research and training to enhance the community's awareness of child development, child abuse and treatment. Supervised second year MSW practicum students in clinical practice, as well as provided child abuse training for psychology interns and medical residents.

1988-1997 CLINICAL SOCIAL WORKER
Barry Robinson Center, Norfolk, VA
Provided residential and outpatient psychotherapies to emotionally and behaviorally troubled children, adolescents, and their families. As an active member of the multidisciplinary team, used clinical knowledge, skills, and abilities to enhance the overall functioning of the team. Responsibilities included residential, day treatment, and outpatient services. Active in program development and marketing/community relations.

1988 SOCIAL WORKER
Norfolk Psychiatric Center, Norfolk, VA
Responsibilities involved working as an integral member of a multidisciplinary team, while providing individual, group and family therapies for adults. Additional responsibilities included assessment of clinical needs and referral services; coordinating treatment services; social histories; discharge planning, placement, and aftercare; referral of crisis walk-ins and telephone calls; maintaining department records; and marketing/community relations. Member of the Social Work Peer Review Committee.

1986-1988 MENTAL HEALTH WORKER
Portsmouth Psychiatric Center, Portsmouth, VA
Responsibilities encompassed working efficiently on all 14 units, while serving as a role model for patients to learn socially effective values, attitudes, and behaviors. As a PRN multidisciplinary team member, contributed to the formulation and implementation of patient care treatment plans with ages infancy to the elderly. Also, served as a relief social worker for the crisis hotline as well as with emergency admissions.
